Your Petitioner reports that the supervised releasee has violated the following conditions:

The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.

On January 23, 2006, the Court was advised that Mr. Henderson had been charged with Burglary, Robbery, Aggravated Assault, Recklessly Endangering Another Person, Terroristic Threats, Receiving Stolen Property, and Possession of Instruments of Crime. Mr. Henderson was accused of breaking into the Paper Moon restaurant and holding the manager of the restaurant at knifepoint. The manager was made to open a cash drawer and an unspecified amount of cash was taken. During the altercation, the manager was cut in the hand by the knife held by Mr. Henderson. It should be noted that Mr. Henderson was an ex-employee of the restaurant. As a result of the new criminal charges, the Court executed a bench warrant as a detainer on January 24, 2006. On April 6, 2006, Mr. Henderson pled guilty to Robbery, Aggravated Assault, Recklessly Endangering Another Person, and Possession of Instruments of Crime. A charge of Burglary, Terroristic Threats, Theft by Unlawful Taking, and Receiving Stolen Property were nol-prossed. On July 20, 2006, Mr. Henderson was sentenced to the following:
